

Join Us!

Since our founding in 1963, the North American Snowsports Journalists Association has served as a platform for many of the leading snowsports writers, producers, and photographers throughout North America to network and share information. Through our roots we've developed strong and trusted industry relationships and we maintain high standards of professionalism and credentialing.

Make the Most of Your Membership

- 1.) Grow your business by networking among fellow journalists and corporate members;
- 2.) Expand your reach by opting in to share and highlight your work on the NASJA website and social media channels;
- 3.) Gain access to snowsports venues for in-the-field research and education via national and regional meetings;
- 4.) Keep yourself in the latest gear with pro deals via the NASJA ProMotive store;
- 5.) Attain recognition for your work through the annual Excellence in Craft Awards Program.

Support Snowsports and Journalism

As members of NASJA we are dedicated to producing on-point snow sports media coverage and we strive to advance our proficiencies by adopting new technologies and capitalizing on emerging channels. Our association brings together common interests and from that we maintain a strong voice and relevance within the snow sports industry. We need your support and we're asking for your membership.
